

James 1:2-4

²My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations;

³Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. ⁴But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

Principal's Corner

This past Sunday at church was a day of rejoicing in my heart. God is so wonderful! As I had the opportunity to stand up at Greenbrier Baptist Church and deliver the message, I realized the day was for me. My eyes gazed upon the stage for worship where I saw a young man worshipping God with all his heart. Then as I stepped upon the stage, I saw another young man sitting in the crowd. A new face, but to me a familiar face. This young man had just received his driver's license on Friday and one of the first things he used it for was to drive to church on Sunday. Then I looked to the other side of the church. Sitting in the pews was a person who is letting God take back full control of their life.

God, you are doing things only you can do. We owe you all the praise and glory. Thank you for all your grace, kindness, love, and forgiveness.
