¹My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring? ²O my God, I cry in the daytime, but Thou hearest not; and in the night season, and am not silent. ³But Thou art holy, O Thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel. ⁴Our fathers trusted in Thee: they trusted, and Thou didst deliver them. ⁵They cried unto Thee, and were delivered: they trusted in Thee, and were not confounded. ⁶But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people. ⁷All they that see me laugh me to scorn; they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, ⁸He trusted on the LORD that He would deliver him; let Him deliver him, seeing He delighteth in him. ⁹But thou art He that took me out of the womb; thou didst make me hope when I was upon my mother's breasts. ¹⁰I was cast upon Thee from the womb; Thou art my God from my mother's belly.
